

Winners

New York, May 26, 2010

Inside Market Data | Awards
2010

Inside Reference Data | Awards
2010 insidemarketdata.com/awards

irdonline.com/awards

Best Counterparty Data Provider

AVOX

In the past years there has been a growing focus on improving counterparty data quality, and firms are increasingly assessing opportunities for outsourcing counterparty data management. The award for Best Counterparty Data Provider reflects the importance of this data when it comes to reducing risk.

The shortlisted companies were Avox, CounterpartyLink, Interactive Data, SIX Telekurs, Standard & Poor's and Thomson Reuters.

The winner was Avox, which also won this award last year. Pictured accepting the award is Ken Price, CEO.

Best Evaluated Prices Service Provider

Interactive Data

Turbulent market conditions and a focus on reducing risk have led to a rapidly growing demand for evaluated prices. In the category for Best Evaluated Prices Service Provider, the finalists were Bloomberg, Interactive Data, Markit, SIX Telekurs, Standard & Poor's and Thomson Reuters.

The winner was Interactive Data, which also won this award last year.

The award was accepted by Robin Simpson, managing director, reference data.

FYI
Best regards
from Marketing,
Eschborn